

Social Guide. An introduction to The Ashmolean Museum for schools groups coming for a China session.

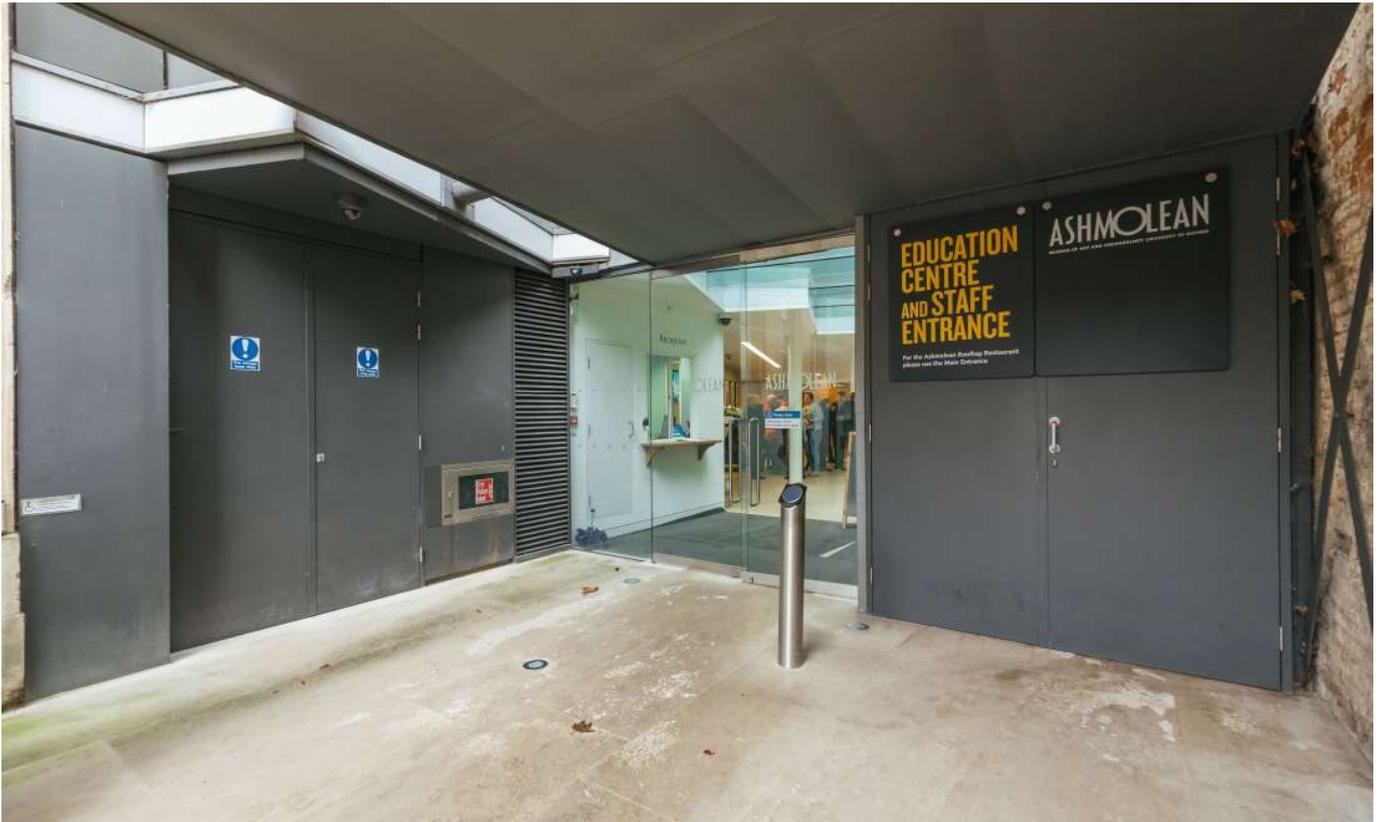

I am going to The Ashmolean Museum. Inside the Museum are objects and artworks from different places and times. The Museum is a very large building.

When I visit with my school I will enter through the St Giles entrance.

I will walk through some glass doors.

There is a friendly person on the left who is there to make sure everything is kept safe.

There are some doors down to the Learning Centre and also a lift.

I will go down the stairs past some toilets.

I can leave my things in the lunch room.

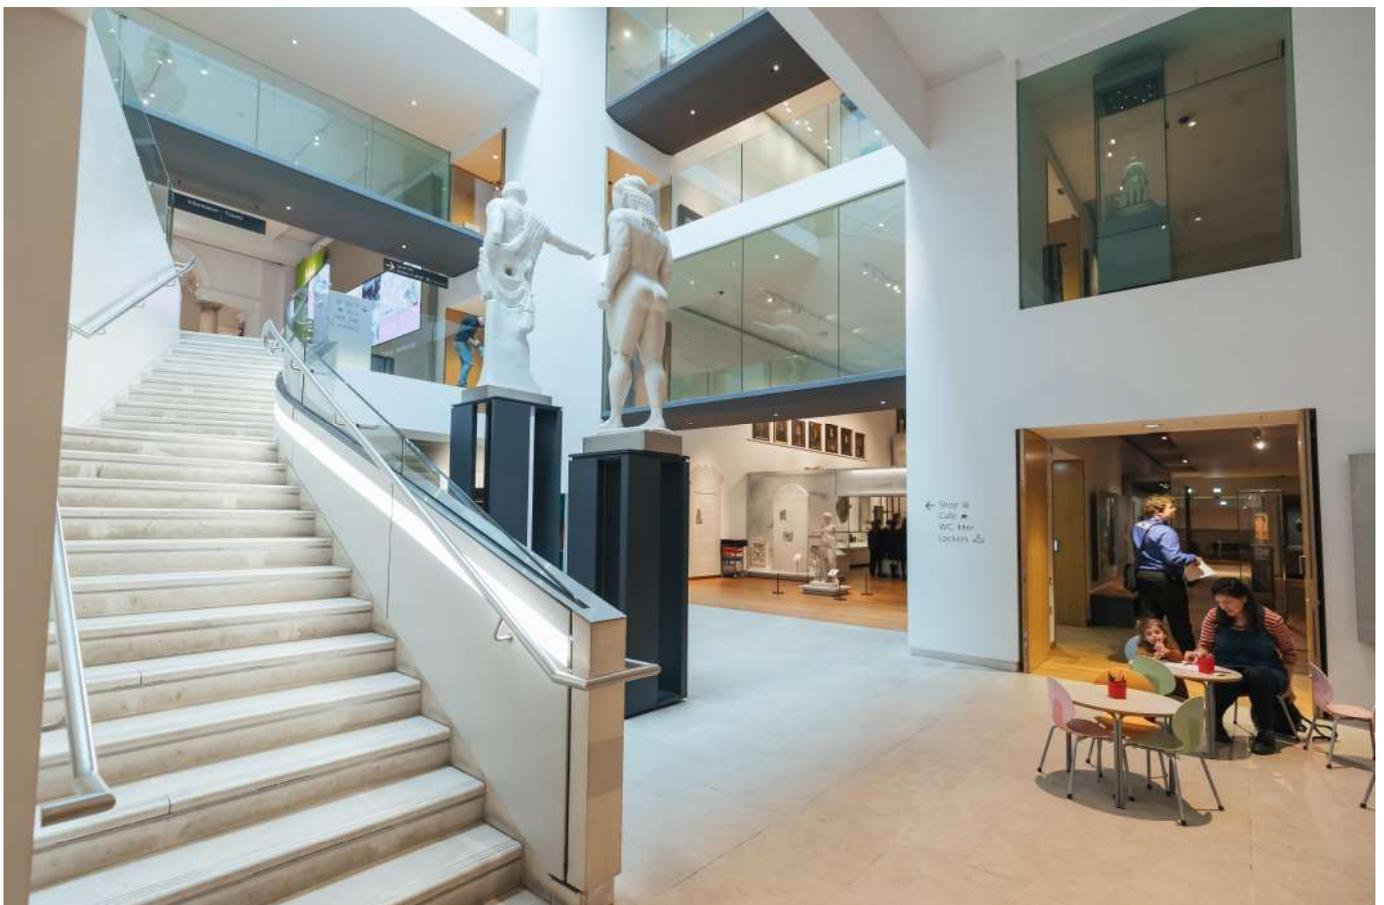

There are coat hooks and a tub for my bag and lunch.

I can use the stairs to go from the Lunch room and into the museum.

This is the Atrium. There are stairs to different floors in the Museum.

Or I can use the lift.

Around the Museum, there are people who will help me and show me the way. They also keep the art and objects safe.

If I have any questions about anything I can ask any of the adults who work in the Museum.

To get to the China galleries I will use the stairs or I can use the lift.

I will look at the large screen on the left wall in this picture with my class and learn a song in Chinese.

I will walk across this bridge to find a beautiful coat decorated with dragons.

I will listen to a story and about Chinese dragons and search the gallery full of interesting objects.

I can even touch some Chinese objects with a small group of my friends.

There is shop where I can buy things if my teacher can take us.

When I want to leave, I can go through doors to the Learning Centre to collect my things.

I can visit the Museum again if I want to.
