

ASHMOLEAN

MUSEUM OF ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Social Guide. An introduction to The Ashmolean Museum for young people and their families.

I am going to The Ashmolean Museum. Inside the Museum are objects and artworks from different places and times. The Museum is a very large building.

There are some steps and a slope to get to the front door.

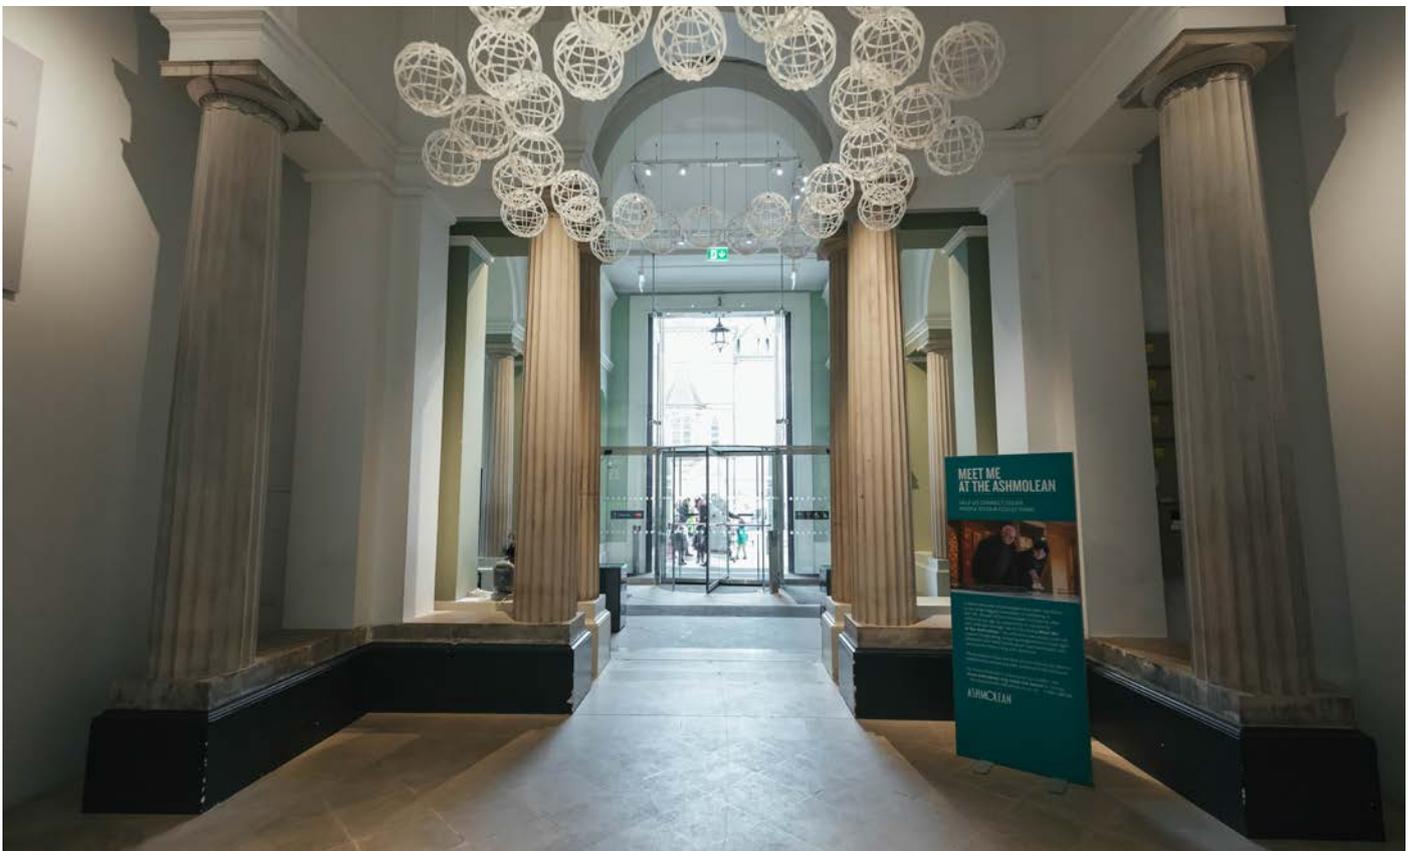

I will go through some large glass doors.

Inside there are people who will help me. If I have questions about anything I can ask any of the adults who work in the Museum.

Inside the entrance there lots of different galleries.

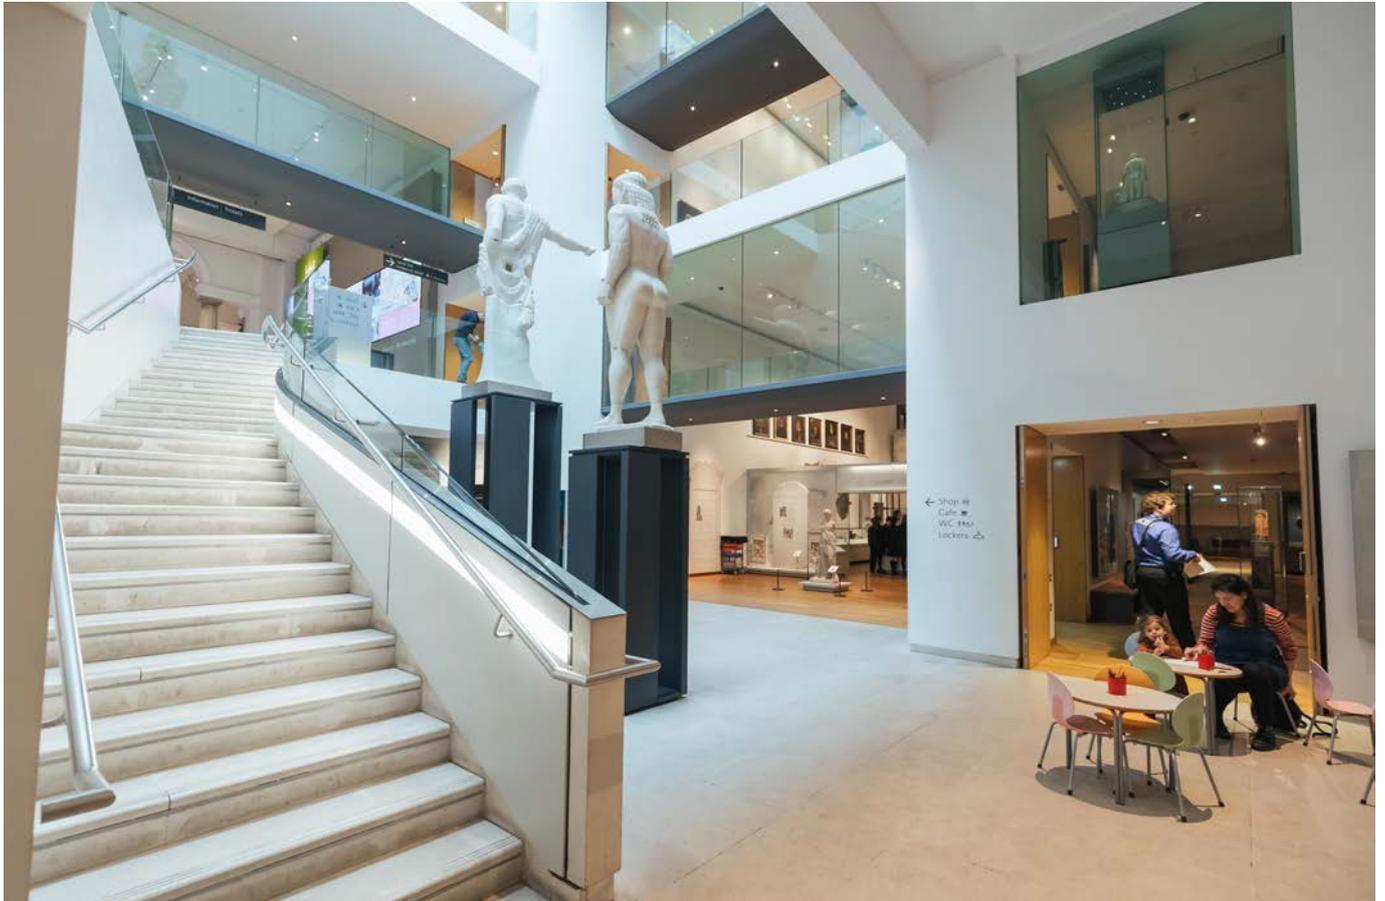

There are stairs in the Museum.

Or I can use the lift.

There are different floors in the Museum.

Around the Museum, there are people who will help me and show me the way. They also keep the art and objects safe.

At the information desk people I can ask questions, buy tickets or get a map. If there is a queue I may have to wait a few minutes.

There are people at the desk who will help me.

The museum has lots of floors.

There are some walkways with glass sides.

There are galleries full of art and objects.
They are different sizes, some are dark and some are light.

Sometimes the Museum is quiet.

Sometimes the Museum is busy.

There is a café on the lower ground floor.

And a shop where I can buy things.

I can visit the Museum again if I want to.
