

Social Guide. An introduction to The Ashmolean Museum for schools groups arriving at St Giles entrance.

I am going to The Ashmolean Museum. Inside the Museum are objects and artworks from different places and times. The Museum is a very large building.

When I visit with my school I will enter through the side St Giles entrance.

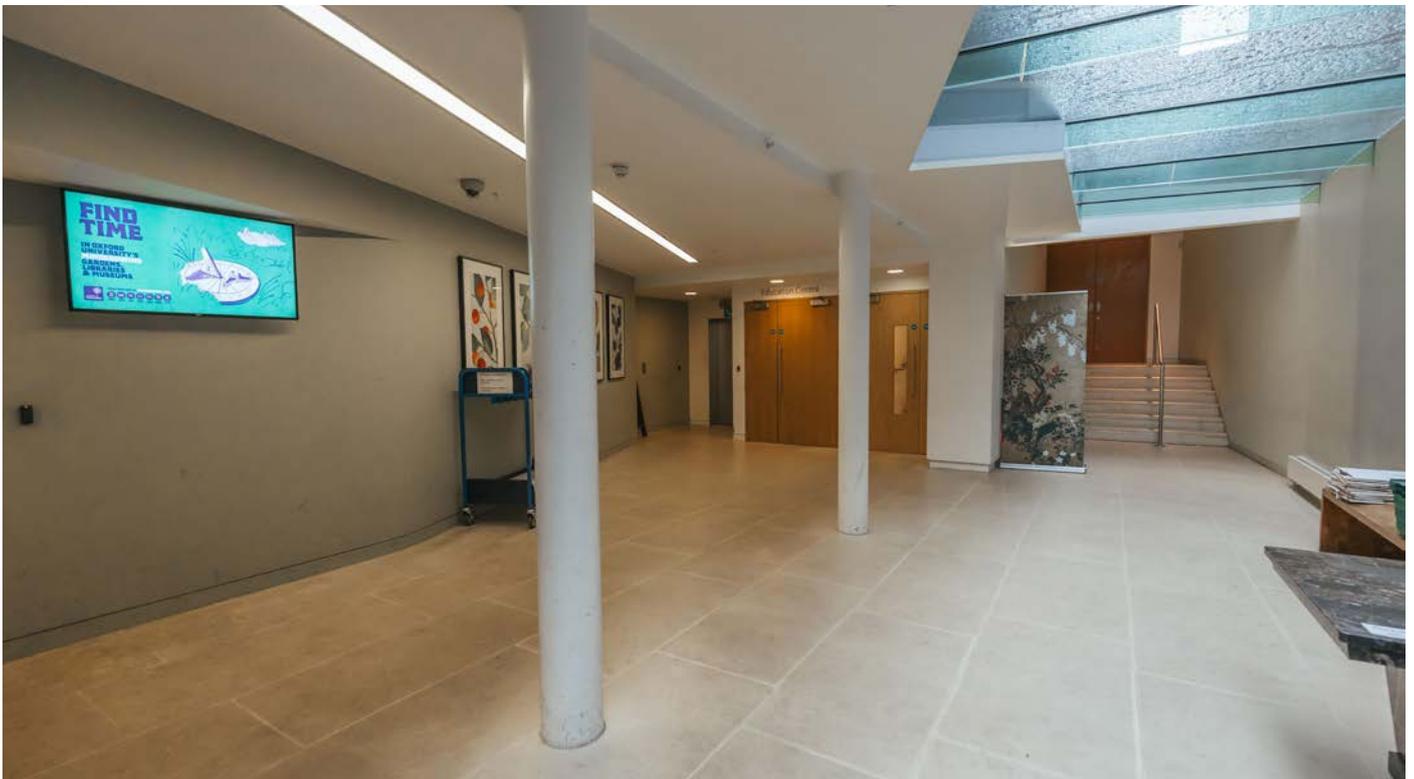

I will walk through some glass doors.

There is a friendly person on the left who is there to make sure everything is kept safe.

There are some doors down to the Learning Centre and also a lift.

I will go down the stairs past some toilets.

I can leave my things in the lunch room.

There are coat hooks and a tub for my bag and lunch.

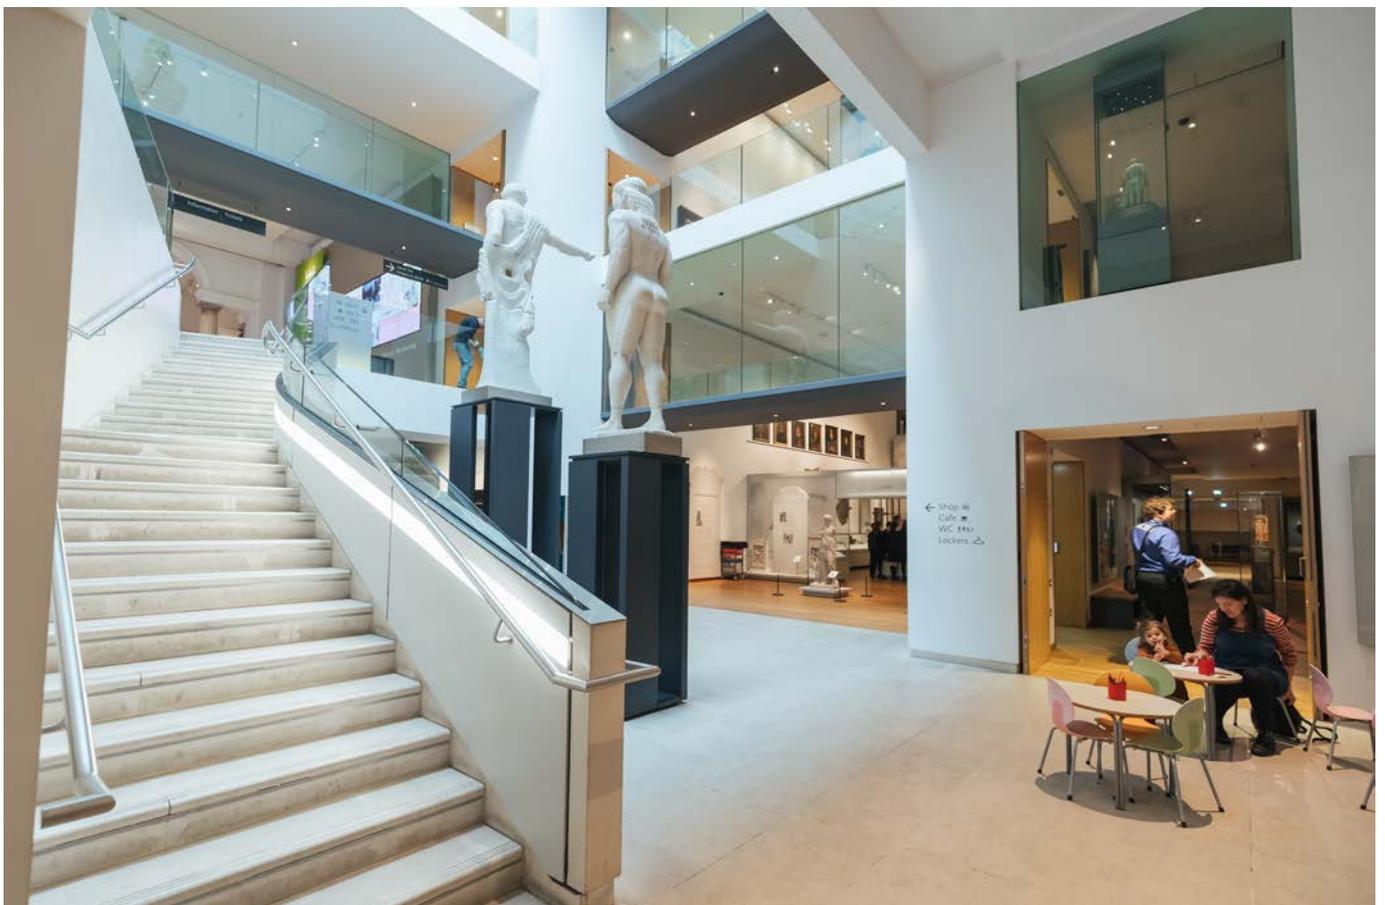

The Learning Studio which is like a classroom is next door.

I can use the stairs to go from the Learning Studio to the Museum galleries.

This is the Atrium. There are stairs to different floors in the Museum.

Or I can use the lift.

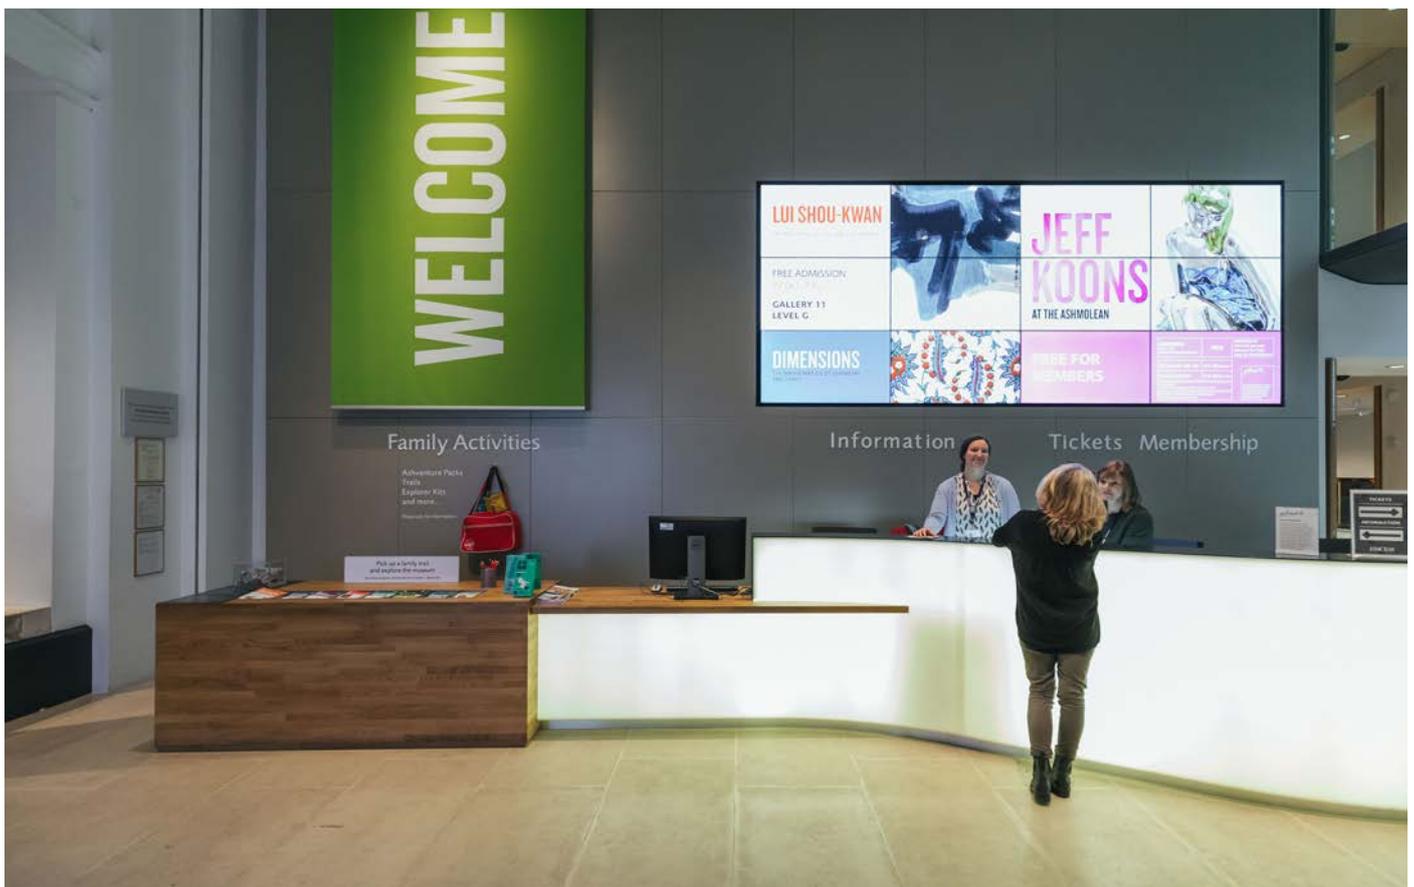

Around the Museum, there are people who will help me and show me the way. They also keep the art and objects safe.

If I have any questions about anything I can ask any of the people who work in the Museum.

Inside the Museum, I will see an information desk. There are people there to help me if I have questions or need a map.

There may be a queue so I may have to wait a few minutes.

There are people at the desk who will help me.

The Museum has lots of floors.

There are some walkways with glass sides.

There are different galleries full of art and objects.

Sometimes the Museum is quiet.

Sometimes the Museum is busy.

There is a café on the lower ground floor.

And a shop where I can buy things.

When I want to leave, I can go through doors to the Learning Centre to collect my things.

I can visit the Museum again if I want to.
